ANDERSON-LAYCOCK.

Yesterday afternoon at the Christian church parsonage in Dover, Mr. Cleveland B. Anderson and Miss Hattie Jane Laycock, two of Dover's most highly respected young people, were married by Rev. Nicholas.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Deputy Sheriff G. W. Laycock, and the groom is one of Dover's foremost contractors.

The happy couple drove to Maysville and took the afternoon C. & O. flyer for Cincinnati. From there they will go to Louisville and other points of interest in Kentucky. They will return to Dover, where they will make their home.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

James L. Finerty & Company threw open the doors of their new market to the public for business on Wednesday afternoon on Market street. They displayed some of the most choice cuts of meats seen here for several months. Besides fresh meats of all kinds, they handle all kinds of fresh sea foods and their showing of fresh mackerel and dressed frogs attracted quite a number of epicures.

To the ladies who called they presented carnations.

The new market handles cheese, catsup, pickles and many other condiments that appeal to the inner man. It will do you good to call and get an appetite for these viands.

SHOE SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY.

PAVING INFORMATION

Letter From City Engineer of City of Lexington Gives Some Inside Dope On the Question.

At the last meeting of the City Council the matter of paving East Second street, among other streets, came up for consideration. The City Council decided to pave East Second street with brick from the bridge to Union street, and from thence to Carmel street with asphalt on the presentation of a petition signed by a majority of the property owners.

There is a unanimous opinion that the street should be paved, paved within the means of the property owners.

We believe we quote Mr. Carlyle, president of the Carlyle Paving Brick Company of Portsmouth, O., that he thought "it should not cost over $3.25 or $3.75 per front foot to pave East Second street with brick." Again it has been said by those who profess to know that Huntington, W. Va., is putting down brick at $1.90 per lineal foot. Gentlemen, if you know this to be true or anything else relating to the business of paving streets, now is the time to make it known.

In this connection we print a letter from the engineer of the city of Lexington in reference to asphalt. We call attention to this part of the letter:

"We have not had much trouble, with either brick or asphalt; one of our heaviest traveled asphalt streets is showing wear and has been repaired by the contractor. This street is five years old and carries approximately 7,500 vehicles of all kinds per day."

When does Maysville, or what street in Maysville averages 7,500 vehicles per day? Again:

"We have never had any trouble whatever on streets with moderate traffic, say up to 3,000 vehicles per day; we have only two blocks of brick in the heavy traffic district, which are about nine years old, and are showing considerable wear."

How does two blocks compare with all brick in the business section of Maysville? Again:

"An asphalt street is easily and cheaply maintained, continuously to get best results."

The objections being urged are the need of repair, cost of keeping clean, a granite block, and a double row of brick along the street car track and the cement gutter. Why a granite block? We think some other block would do just as well, but this is another story.

Here is the full text of the communication from Lexington. Read it and study it until you understand it. By the way, Lexington has twenty miles of asphalt. It must not be so bad or else Lexington would not put down so much of it.

Asphalt streets here are subdivided into three classes, A, B, and C. Class A being two inch sheet asphalt surface, one inch binder and six inches concrete.

Class B, 1½ inches asphalt surface, one inch binder and six inches concrete.

Class C, 2 inches asphalt concrete, over six inches concrete. No binder.

Cost of Contract.
A—$1.30 per square yard surface; $4.50 to $5.10 per cubic yard; prices include grading.

B—$1.20 per square yard asphalt surface, $4.50 to $5.10 per cubic yard; prices include cost of grading.

C—$1 per square yard asphalt surface, $4.50 per cubic yard concrete; prices include grading.

Brick—1½ inch sand cushion, six inches concrete base, cost by contract from $1.38 to $1.80 per square yard for brick surface; $4.50 to $5.50 per cubic yard concrete base; prices include grading.

We have not had much trouble, with either brick or asphalt, one of our heaviest traveled asphalt streets is showing wear and has been repaired by contractor; this street is five years old and carries 7,500 vehicles per day of all kinds.

We have never had any trouble whatever on streets with moderate traffic, say up to 3,000 vehicles per day. We have only two blocks of brick in heavy traffic district, which are about nine years old, and are showing considerable wear; other brick streets showing good results on more moderate traffic streets.

Warm weather will not materially affect asphalt surface if mixed properly. What markings are made shift and disappear. The right kind of markings in an asphalt street usually shows good qualities and no bad results. An asphalt street is easily and cheaply maintained, and should be repaired and maintained, continuously to get best results. It is difficult to give cost data for maintenance due to age of streets, amount of traffic, amount of cleaning it receives, etc.

If you will write Engineering News Company, they will give you statistics from all over the country.

ANOTHER OLD VIOLIN.

Hon. E. L. Worthington has a violin bearing the date 1690, made in Cremona, Italy by the famous Nicolo Amati. There were two brothers, Andrea and Nicolo, who were the first Italians to make violins. They flourished from 1550 to 1692. Nicolo was the most eminent of the family. He improved the model adopted by the rest of the family and produced instruments of great power of tone. His pattern was usually small, but he also made the so-called "Grand Amatis." His most famous pupil was Antonio Stradivari of whom we spoke in a previous article. Senator Worthington's violin is 226 years old and a splendid one. Any more old violins? Let's hear from them.

KILLED ON C. & O.

Nathan Riley Meets Death By Stepping In Front of An Eastbound Train Near Vanceburg.

Nathan Riley, aged 60 years, who lived on the Clark farm below Vanceburg, was killed by an eastbound freight train Tuesday morning about 10:30.

He was going up the track and stepped off the westbound track to avoid a train going west and failed to hear the eastbound train, which knocked him off the track and struck his head against the end of one of the ties, fracturing his skull.

The train crew took him to Vanceburg, where he died in about twenty-five minutes after reaching the depot. He has a wife and one child about 9 months old.

SHAW WINS

Court of Appeals Says the Mason Circuit Court's Decision In His Case Is All Right.

Some time ago Colonel John Shaw, the veteran baggageman on the Maysville accommodation train on the C. & O., who was crippled for life in an accident in the C. & O. yards here and who brought suit against the company for damages and was given a judgment for $10,000, received word Thursday that the Court of Appeals had sustained the judgment of the Mason Circuit Court, and that he was entitled to the $10,000, with about $2,000 additional as interest.

"AMERICAN DIPLOMACY IS BANKRUPT."

"A study of the administration's policy towards Europe since July, 1914, reveals three fundamental errors. First, the lack of foresight to make timely provision for backing up American diplomacy by actual or assured military and naval force. Second, the forfeiture of the world's respect for our assertion of rights by pursuing the policy of making threats and failing to make them good. Third, a loss of the moral forces of the civilized world through failure to truly interpret to the world the spirit of the American democracy in its attitude towards the terrible events which accompanied the early stages of the war."—Elihu Root.

These striking sentences are taken from the great speech made last night by Elihu Root as temporary chairman of the New York Republican state convention.

Mr. Root cited two events which more than any other contributed to the downfall of American diplomacy and brought the United States into contempt in every country in Europe.

The first "was the report of the Austrian ambassador, Mr. Dumba, to his government, that when the American note of February 10 was received, he asked the Secretary of State, Mr. Bryan, whether it meant business, and received an answer which satisfied him that it did not, but was intended for effect at home in America."

The other event, again employing the words of Mr. Root, "was the strange and unfortunate declaration of the President in a public speech in Philadelphia the fourth day after the sinking of the Lusitania that 'a man may be too proud to fight.' Whatever the Austrian ambassador was in fact told by the Secretary of State, the impression which he reported was supported by the events which followed. Whatever the President did mean, his declaration was accepted the world over as presenting the attitude of the American government towards the protection of its life and liberty of American citizens in the exercise of their just rights, and throughout the world the phrase 'too proud to fight' became the byword of derision and contempt for the government of the United States."

The case is summed up in a masterly manner by Mr. Root when he says:

"When our government failed to tell the truth about Belgium, it lost the opportunity for leadership of the moral sense of the American people, and it lost the power which a knowledge of that leadership and a sympathetic response from the moral sense of the world would have given to our diplomacy. When our government failed to make any provision whatever for defending its rights in case they should be trampled upon, it lost the power which a belief in its readiness and will to maintain its rights would have given to its diplomatic representations. When our government gave notice to Germany that it would destroy American lives and American ships at its peril, our words, which would have been potent if sustained by adequate preparation to make them good, and by the prestige and authority of the moral leadership of a great people, in a great cause, were treated with a contempt which should have been foreseen; and when our government failed to make those words good, its diplomacy was bankrupt."—Lexington Herald.

BILL NO. 138.

The above bill permitting the use of hoop nets in the navigable streams of Kentucky has been forced from the hands of the committee and placed in the calendar. The passage of this bill would permit a wholesale destruction of fish in the larger streams and rob the smaller streams of their natural source of new fish life. Through the help of the United States Fisheries Department, brought about by the creation of our Fish and Game Commission, we have been able to distribute many thousands of fish into the waters of this state. If hoop netting is permitted in this state the United States government will certainly discontinue this splendid service and co-operation. We are unable to see the good points of the bill.

Wilson's latest somersault lands him in a position favoring a tariff commission. It is to be, of course, "non-partisan and scientific." In view of the manner in which Wilson made his appointments to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Trade Commission, we suggest that wisdom on his part would demand that the tariff commission bill should be framed so as to provide, in definite terms, for the appointment of an equal number of Republicans and Democrats in its membership.

Argentine shipments of wool to the United States are increasing at a great rate under the provisions of the Democratic tariff law. From October 1 to December 23, 1915, 31,396 bales were shipped to this country, compared with 3,317 bales for the same period of 1914, both periods being under the Democratic tariff law, which placed wool on the free list. This is an increase of 846 per cent.

Many of our political philosophers oppose centralization of power but so far none of them has been heard protesting against the authority granted the president of the National League to settle protested games without appeal.

"What we must do in America is not to attack our judges but to educate them," Mr. Brandeis is quoted as saying. Are the justices of the Supreme Court in for a little private tutoring of the Brandeis brand?

Three Democratic Congressmen from Indiana deem discretion the better part of valor and will not be candidates for re-election. They think it better to go while the going is good.

Judging from the number of fouls in the basket ball games, there are many of our young athletes that are not too proud to fight.

Evidently President Wilson is not too proud to fight for a re-election.

On second thoughts, the Carranza government has decided to catch Villa before executing him.

Preparedness

By REV. J. H. RALSTON
Secretary of Correspondence, Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—Prepare to meet thy God.—Amos 4:12.

Preparedness is the word of the hour. Its application is to preparation for national defense. Many newspapers and many patriotic citizens are now urging the United States government to prepare for war in the time of peace. This application of the idea to the nation has a strong competitor for consideration and that is preparation for man's eternal welfare. The preparedness first spoken of is in connection with a possible enemy of greater present military strength. God is very strong, and if it is possible for man to so act that he encounters God as an enemy, is he able to meet him?

Meeting God.
What is it to meet God? Man meets God in his everyday obligations. Some of these are communal, while others are individual. Men are as communities and as individuals meeting God and they are enjoying or suffering the consequences. There is a certain meeting of God in death, the soul standing naked before him, and it is a very common expression in connection with the death of anyone to say, "He has gone to meet his God." When a Judge in court sentences a prisoner to death he adds, "And may God have mercy on your soul." But the chief thing in mind is the meeting of God in the final judgment. Neither taking a chance, reformation, nor becoming religious will make this preparation; only belief in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior will do it.

The Outcome of Preparation.
One outcome of such preparation will be an immediate blessing, the establishment of peace with God and the experience of the peace of God. There is the realization of man's true place in the universe. He was created in the image and likeness of God and he can never be "the whole of man," as indicated by the correct reading of Ecclesiastes 12:13, unless he believes in Jesus Christ. There is also deliverance from the power of death, which, while as a lion in the pathway it may terrify, is chained. This outcome means the ultimate, perfect individual and also the perfect social order. Man is not "whole" until he has a sound mind in a sound body, and both of these are the inheritance of the believer in Jesus Christ. A man who does not believe in Jesus Christ as his Savior, is not of a sound mind. The prodigal was not in his right mind when he demanded his father's goods and when he was spending them in riotous living, and it was only when he came to himself; that is, when he resumed rationally and determined to return to his father's house, that he became of sound mind. This sound mind will also be in a sound body. It is the glory of the Christian religion that it promises a body that is incorruptible, powerful, honorable, glorious and like Christ's body. The blind, the deaf, the dumb, the deformed and those lacking members of the normal body, can certainly believe that they will have perfect bodies some day if they meet the conditions that God places on them.

When Shall Man Prepare?
Many who acknowledge the necessity of preparation, put it off until after death, but while there is a most dangerous indifference to this fact on the part of those who theoretically profess it, it is true that preparation must be made before death. "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." That preparation can be completely made now. But, says someone, "That is too rapid, that is practically miraculous, it is a creative act." Precisely so, and nothing less. There is no evolution in regeneration. Jesus, in his talk to Nicodemus, settled the matter of man's right relationship to God in speaking of it as a new birth. That preparation can be made this moment by believing in Jesus Christ.

Two soldiers in the trenches of Flanders, who were brothers and devout Christians, belonged to a regiment which had been ordered to make a charge upon the enemy. The commanding officers said that there would be a very serious business. The younger of the two brothers said to the other, as they went into the smoke and the smothering gases, "Brother, we may not see each other again, but it is all right." The older brother came back wounded, the name of the other was found in the list of those who had been killed, but he was prepared.

As a Little Child.

While you are in the world, imitate little children, who, as they with one hand hold fast by their father with the other gather berries along the edges; so you, gathering and handling the goods of this world with one hand, must with the other always hold fast the hand of your heavenly Father.—Francis de Sales.

Possibly the wisdom of man may surpass that of woman, but when it comes to fact—well, he isn't in it.

So far none of the farmers have been blown up because they were raising corn to feed the fighting powers.

A lawyer doesn't know everything, but he thinks a client thinks he does.

It's impossible to suppress the man who thinks he can tell a funny story.

ITEMS FROM ALL AROUND

Hefly Hog.

(Grant County News.)
E. K. Loomis of near Hookin, delivered a fat sow to a local dealer here Thursday, which brought him $45.10. The porker was a Chester White, and weighed 600 pounds.

Monster Hog.

(Webster Journal-Press.)
J. H. Clark of the country, killed a hog a few days ago of very extraordinary size. Mr. Clark is a prominent farmer and the veracity of the statement is not questioned, although the story sounds like a fable. The hog, which was a Duroc, weighed 737½ pounds, made 124 gallons of sausage and thirty-four gallons of lard. The value of the sausage and lard was estimated at $70.

Horses Poisoned.

(La Center Advance.)
One of the meanest acts that has been committed in this county for some time was the poisoning of two horses belonging to Jess Hinkle of Kevil, last Saturday night. Mr. Hinkle says he went to his stable Sunday morning and found one of his horses dead and another very sick. A doctor was sent for, and arriving said the horses had eaten parls green, which had been mixed with salt and put in the feed trough. So far there is no clew to who did the act. The loss falls very heavy on Mr. Hinkle.

OUR DAILY BIRTHDAY PARTY
February 18.

General Otto Liman von Sanders, the German master of Constantinople, dictator of Turkish war policies and daring military commander, is 61 years old today. The last name of the General he derived from his wife, a Scotch woman of an old family of the nobility. The brilliant officer was one of several Generals selected by the Kaiser to receive that precious little word "von" to add to his name, on the occasion of the emperor's jubilee. For Sanders is a "Kaiser man," believing that the Emperor has been divinely called to lead the Fatherland to victory. During the present war, the General has been wounded at least once, while at the front of the Gallipoli peninsula. He is assigned by the Kaiser to defend Constantinople, the most important strategic position in all Europe. General von Sanders was born at Stolp in Pomerania, on February 18, 1855. He was one of the most brilliant officers at the military school, and won advancement in his early years. He was selected some years ago to reorganize the Sultan's army, and he took with him a score of the best German officers. Later the Kaiser sent thousands of his picked troops and hundreds of officers into Turkish army, so that when Germany trained her guns on the fortress of Liege, the Kaiser possessed a valuable military concentration in Turkey. It has frequently been reported that the Turks did not take kindly to the domination of the army by the Germans. Whatever methods were used, it is certain that von Sanders and his fellow officers effected the Kaiser's aim.

Hon. Jean A. A. J. Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States, 61 today.

Maj. Gen. Henry F. M. Wilson of the British army, 57 years old today.

General Alexander Bertram, member of the Imperial Munitions Committee of Canada, 63 years old today.

Hon. Edgar E. Clark, member Interstate Commerce Commission, 60 years

Children Marry.

(Hart County News.)
Dick Richardson of the Uno country, late married Mary Joe Brown of Cave City. The thing was done in Tennessee. As the ages of the two added together only make thirty-two years, they were 16 years each. Older heads are said to be at fault.

Stroke of Bad Luck.

(Bardstown Standard.)
Bad luck seems to have overtaken the family of J. E. Ballard, a prominent farmer or near Fairfield. Mr. Ballard is confined to his home by the rheumatism. Mrs. Ballard suffered the misfortune of falling down the steps and breaking an arm, and Margaret, the little daughter, also broke an arm climbing up to a hen's nest in the chicken house.

Possum Hunter From Away Back.

(Falmouth Outlook.)
Charles Blades of near Willow, was in town last Thursday and sold a nice bunch of furs to J. J. Austin. Among the bunch was one opossum hide that measured forty-three inches in length. This is the largest opossum we have ever heard of. Mr. Blades is some trapper. He says that he has caught more than 1,500 opossums during his lifetime, as well as hundreds of coons, skunks, minks, etc. During the winter season Mr. Blades picks up some easy money by trapping.

Hon. Carl C. Van Dyke, new Congressman from St. Paul, Minn., 35 years old today.

August Belmont, noted New York financier, 63 years old today.

Hon. John C. McKenzie, Congressman from Illinois, 56 years old today.

Dr. Russell H. Chittenden, director of Sheffield Scientific School, at Yale, 60 years old today.

Hon. Lawrence O. Murray, former Comptroller of the Treasury, 52 years old today.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.
February 18.

1546—Death of Martin Luther, church reformer, aged 62.

1815—President Madison signed the treaty of peace with England.

1861—Jefferson Davis inaugurated President of the Confederacy at Montgomery, Ala.

1862—Permanent Congress of the Confederate states was organized at Richmond.

1863—Southern press, in answer to peace proposals of France, declared their only peace commissioners were Lee and his fellow generals.

1871—The powers recognized the Republican government of France.

1891—Foreigners removed, and only Austrians and Hungarians employed on the Austrian railroads.

1913—Senate passed the immigration bill over Taft's veto; the House failed to pass the bill the next day over the veto.

1913—Threatened strike of firemen on fifty-four eastern railroads was averted by agreement to arbitrate.

RECORD OF THE PAST

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had In Maysville

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from kidney ills, should find comforting words in the following statement.

Mrs. John Burns, Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and kidney trouble. They came on every three or six months and at times I was confined to bed and almost helpless. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me quick benefit. Since then when I have noticed slight return attacks of backache, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to quickly check the trouble."

OVER SEVEN YEARS LATER Mrs. Burns said: "The statement I gave before praising Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. I know that this medicine acts as represented."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CONGRESSIONAL RECEPTION TONIGHT.

Washington, February 18.—Politics and policies will be thrust aside by the members of Congress tonight, and the clasp-hammers will be done for the President's reception at the White House. The women of the Congressional set will meet the White House bride formally for the first time, and President Wilson will greet many familiar faces and a host of new ones.

New Orleans, La.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, for I know my daughter never would have been so well if she had not taken it. For more than a year she had suffered agonies from irregularity, backache, dizziness, and no appetite, but is now well. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters and you can publish this letter."—Mrs. A. Estrada, 129 N. Galvez Street, New Orleans, La.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"My daughter was feeling tired and all run down with no apparent cause. She had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before and knew its value so she again purchased it and she was able to keep to work, her eyes became bright and natural, and her system was built up completely. We generally keep the Vegetable Compound in the house for it is to be relied on."—Mrs. E. J. Purdy, 5131 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

SOCIETY LEADER

May Fight Smuggling Charge—Wealthy Women Accused By Government of Smuggling.

New York, February 18.—Whether Mrs. Charlotte A. Warren, a wealthy New York society woman, wife of Whitney Warren, the architect, will fight the government's smuggling charge is the question which the wealthy friends of the accused woman and the custom house officials are anxious to have answered. Mrs. Warren has already appeared in the Federal District Court and entered a plea of not guilty, and she was given until tomorrow, February 19, to decide whether she would alter or stand by this plea.

Mrs. Warren is charged in an indictment with having undervalued wearing apparel of the value of about ten thousand dollars, which she brought with her when she arrived from France in November. Mrs. Warren, it is stated in the indictment, placed a value of only $1,500 on her clothes, and explained this sum to the customs officers on the ground that she had managed to pick up some "war bargains" and that three of her dresses although originally of foreign make, had already been brought into this country and had the duty paid on them but had been remodeled abroad to fit the prevailing fashions.

The goods, the value of which is in dispute, were described in the indictment as one black and metal thread evening costume, trimmed with lace, one flame-colored evening costume and a quantity of suits, gowns, costumes, blouses, coats, hats and furs. These were contained in seven trunks and three pieces of hand baggage. Of the trunks five were held by the customs officers for appraisement, but were released after Mrs. Warren had given bond for $14,000.

It is charged that the defendant besides filling out a declaration undervaluing her goods, with the idea of evading the payment of full duty, also made a false statement to a government examiner that three of the gowns had already had duty paid on them and had been taken to France only to be remodeled.

The case has attracted a good deal of attention, not only on account of the social prominence of the defendant, but because this is said to be the first case in which the undervaluation charge on account of goods imported indirectly has ever been brought against a person not engaged in trade. As it was not supposed that Mrs. Warren had brought in any of this wearing apparel with the intention of selling it, it was doubted for a time whether the government could draw up an indictment which would suit her case. The Department of Justice at Washington was consulted by Treasury Department, and it was only after this consultation that District Attorney Marshall took action.

It was on the information that Collector Dudley Malone secured from the government agents in Paris that the action against Mrs. Warren was based. These agents reported that it was impossible to secure goods cheap in that center of fashion because of the war, and that there were no such things as "war bargains." Collector Malone laid the facts with the District Attorney, recommending grand jury action and forfeiture of the goods, with the statement that he was convinced that there had been an attempt to defraud the government.

It is believed by friends of Mrs. Warren that the government has put the most severe construction on her action, and that she will maintain her plea of not guilty in order to clear her name of the charge of intentional fraud.

HOUSE IN VAIN DAY OF ARGUMENT.

Frankfort, Ky., February 16.—The House spent another day in fruitless wrangling over the liquor question, which began with the introduction by Mr. Greene of a resolution endorsing national prohibition, addressed to the Kentucky delegation in Congress.

Harry Meyers offered an amendment providing that in the event of confiscation of property as a result of national prohibition, property owners should be recompensed.

The resolution and the amendment provoked a lengthy debate in which Mr. Lasey replied to Mr. Greene's speech in support of the bill. In his reply Mr. Lasey said that the movement of Mr. Greene and his coterie for prohibition was undemocratic and made a political speech.

Mr. Greene then took occasion to speak on a point of personal privilege and made a lengthy defense of his democracy, and attacked the Meyers amendment. Mr. Meyers also made a speech in defense of his amendment.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

How little it costs, if we give it a thought
To make happy some heart each day,
Just one kind word, or a tender smile,
As we go on our daily way.

DELECTABLE DISHES.

When one has a bit of cold boiled ham, shred it fine with the scissors, and to a half cupful of the ham add one cupful of celery, cut in bits, a half cupful of sour apple, cut fine. Mix well with mayonnaise and serve on lettuce, garnished with shredded green pepper.

Danish Pudding.—Pare and core six apples, chop into small pieces and sprinkle with half a cupful of sugar. Have ready two cupfuls of bread crumbs, soaked in one-half cupful of milk to which one tablespoonful of melted butter has been added. Beat two eggs until light, add a grating of nutmeg, a pinch of cinnamon and salt. Mix the apple with the soaked crumbs, then add the eggs and lastly two dozen blanched, chopped almonds. Add milk to make the pudding of the consistency of brown Betty, put into a buttered dish and bake until it leaves the sides. Serve turned out with cream.

Ducks With Turnips.—Prepare the ducks as for roasting. Heat in a saucepan a quarter of a cupful of butter and the same amount of fat salt pork diced, and brown the ducks all over in this. Add two cupfuls of boiling water, a small bunch of parsley, a sprig of celery and two bay leaves, all tied together; two white onions, and six turnips. Cover closely and cook an hour and a half. The turnip and duck exchange flavors and the result is particularly good. Serve the ducks with the turnips cut in dice on the platter. Make a gravy of the giblets.

Chicken, Western Style.—Put through a meat chopper a four of a pound each of veal and fresh pork, two slices of bacon, the chicken liver, half a green pepper and two sprigs of parsley; add a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, half a teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of paprika. Mix well and use to stuff a young chicken. Cook slowly at first to cook the veal and pork, then brown the fowl and baste with the fat every ten minutes. Cook two hours and serve with rice or sweet potatoes.

"THE UNKNOWN," PARAMOUNT FEATURE, AT WASHINGTON FRIDAY NIGHT.

Lou Tellegen, the internationally famous romantic star who for several years was leading man for Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, and who lately was married to Miss Geraldine Farrar, the opera star, will make his second appearance of a Paramount star of the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company in an elaborate production entitled "The Unknown." It is a picture of I. A. R. Wyllie's widely read novel entitled, "The Red Mirage."

Just as Mr. Lou Tellegen's first feature play by the Lasky Company, "The Explorer," took him into the African wilds, "The Unknown" leads him into a romance of the desert. He portrays a young Englishman left penniless by disinheritance in an army post on the edge of the desert. A young American girl takes an interest in him. He and the colonel of the regiment, which he joins under an assumed name, are in love with the girl. She saves the young Englishman from punishment and eventually elopes with him. In the unraveling of the story a family relationship is found to exist between the young soldier and his colonel. The ending is a happy consummation of many thrilling adventures. Besides the star the cast includes Theodore Roberts and Dorothy Davenport.

"The Unknown" will be shown at the Washington Friday night.

SHERIFF'S SETTLEMENT

Sheriff John H. Clark Files His Settlement With Fiscal Court and It Was Accepted After Examination By Auditing Committee.

The Mason County Fiscal Court met in special session Wednesday, Judge W. H. Rice presiding. The yearly settlement of the sheriff was the order of the day. The report showed that he and his deputies had collected for all purposes for the last year $81,734.80. Below will be found the recapitulation:

Free Pike fund	$31,696.32
School fund	17,306.88
General Claim fund	19,017.80
Dirt Road fund	1,529.25
Infirmary fund	6,823.00
Sinking fund	5,071.40
Back Tax fund	290.15

Total $81,734.80
The total collections of both state and county taxes for the year was an increase over the previous year, but the county taxes fell short and this was caused by a reduction in the franchise levy, which for 1915, was as follows:

	County.	City.
C. & O. tangible	$355,550	$85,630
C. & O. franchise	255,057	41,204

MORE STRENGTH FOR FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

If all the old people in Maysville realized what Vinol will do for them, we would not be able to get enough of it to supply the demand. We quote from a recent letter received from Mrs. A. E. Carson of Kingston, N. Y.

She says: "I am 69 years of age, and had been ailing for a long time with indigestion. I got run-down, was weak, dizzy and could not sleep at night. I consulted two doctors who said I had hardening of the arteries and at my age could not expect to be strong again. My daughter would give me no peace until I tried Vinol, as it had done so much for her. I have taken five bottles and my health and strength have come back, so I am able to do all the housework for my family of four, and I am recommending Vinol to all my friends."

The reason Vinol is so beneficial to old people is because it contains the very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz: the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron, beef peptonate, and a mild tonic wine.

HARVEY AND PUMPHREYS COMMITTEE.

Representatives W. L. Harvey and J. D. Pumphyreys, who clashed on the floor last Friday and in which serious charges were made on Governor Stanley and still more serious charges against Harvey, are to be investigated by a committee of seven. Three to be selected by each man and the six men to select the seventh. Pumphyreys' men are all prominent. They are Odie Duncan of Henderson, Harry J. Meyers of Covington, and Daniel S. Richardson of Meade county. Harvey selected the following, who are as "dry as dust": John T. Roach of Graves county, H. F. S. Bailey of Hopkins county, and Richard Radcliffe of Henry county. The six failed to agree on the seventh man up to date. It looks very much as though it was a wet and dry fight.

COSTLY ERROR

Augusta Wins in a Big Damage Suit Through the Mistake in Court Records.

(Bracken Chronicle.)

Monday in the Bracken Circuit Court, Attorney Hargett, representing the City of Augusta, submitted a special demurrer in its answer in the suit of the Dover Trust Company against the city for $25,000.

Young Wilbur Brothers, aged about 14 years, was killed in this city in December, 1914, when he came in contact with a live electric light wire. The parents of the boy, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brothers, signed a paper authorizing the Dover Trust Company to act as administrator of the deceased, and on the same day came to an agreement with the city of Augusta—Brothers and his wife—agreeing to compromise the case for a stipulated sum.

This statement was not satisfactory to Attorneys Byron and Cole for the Dover Trust Company, who contended that their fee should be one-half of the amount of the settlement, but no agreement could be reached, and the attorneys brought suit for $25,000 damages. The papers in the case all bear the date of January 28, 1915, while the County Court records show that the Dover Trust Company was not appointed administrator until January 29, 1915. Attorney Hargett's contention is that the trust company was not the legally appointed administrator at the time of the filing of the suit, hence asks that the action be dismissed. If Judge Newell agrees with Attorney Hargett's views in the case it means that it will be thrown out of court, as more than one year has passed since the appointment of the trust company as administrator. On the face of the proposition it looks as though the city of Augusta has the upper hand in this case, which will cause the taxpayers of the town to smile from "ear to ear."

On Tuesday, Judge Newell heard the arguments on this special demurrer and sustained Attorney Hargett, ruling that the Dover Trust Company had no right to file this suit before being appointed administrator. Byron and Cole, acting for the trust company, say that a mistake was made in the court record and that this suit was filed on January 29. On the face of the returns it looks as though the citizens of Augusta should shake hands with themselves, no matter who the mistake may be finally charged to.

REV. WILKINSON OF LOUISVILLE, TO PREACH AT CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas Wilkinson of Louisville, will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Howard of West Fourth street, Saturday and Sunday. While here he will preach at the Central Presbyterian church both morning and evening. The public is cordially invited to hear Rev. Wilkinson.

NAMES CANDIDATES.

Boston, February 17.—Governor Samuel W. McCall announced late today that he and Senators Henry Cabot Lodge, John W. Weeks and former Senator W. Murray Crane, would be candidates at primaries April 25, for four delegates-at-large from the state to the Republican national convention. The candidates would be unpledged, he said.

Revival services at the First M. E. church, South, are daily increasing in interest and importance. The pastor's fervent sermons are creating a deeper feeling of one's sense of duty to God and his fellowman. The choir, under the leadership of the pastor-evangelist Cordray, is giving some very fine music. Arrange to attend church here Sunday if you have nowhere else to go.

S. Straus of the New York Store, has made some decided improvements in his place of business. The most important is the private office at the left of the entrance. It is well equipped and adds much to the appearance of his store.

The friends of Mrs. I. M. Lane will be glad to know that she has so far recovered from her recent illness at the Hayswood Hospital so she could be removed to her home on East Second street.

E. N. Clinkenbeard of Sherburne, Frank Dorsey of Fleming county, Harvey Collins, Charles Lalley and H. C. Burke of Mayslick, were delivering tobacco in this city Thursday.

Miss Frances Steward, who has been very ill with pneumonia at the home of Mrs. Thomas R. Johnson on Morrison street, is slowly improving.

Eugene Boyd of Minerva, and R. L. Chambers of Sardis, were among those transacting business in this city Thursday.

Mrs. S. Straus leaves Sunday for New York, where she will remain for several weeks, the guest of friends.

SPRINGDALE.

Rev. Edward Boggs of Aberdeen, is holding a series of meetings at Pleasant Hill schoolhouse.

Miss Mary Rose Weaver fell Wednesday while skating and cut a painful gash in her right cheek.

Masters John Hill and Charles Day of Poplar Flat, are pleasant guests at Maplewood for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hook visited Mrs. H. P. Day at her home near Poplar Flat, Lewis county, last Thursday.

Because of the inclemency of the weather, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Literal were induced to remain over night at the home of Mr. John Sartain Saturday. The occasion of the visit was the marriage of one of Mr. Sartain's daughters to a Cincinnati man.

A letter from Julius S. Degman of White Salmon, Wash., contains the following: "We are experiencing the severest winter since our coming to this state. We had our usual January snowstorm, then as we were expecting the chinook as usual, the storm from the east took on fresh fury and it snowed every day and night for ten days, and a cold wind blew. The snow reached a depth of four feet on the level. In the mountains back of us it is reported to be nine feet. School was dismissed and all traffic, even railroads, were tied up for a few days. We had just recovered from an epidemic of diphtheria which struck us in December. Therefore we feel that we are having our first real trouble in this, our delightful new home. Today, February 1, it is raining and freezing as it falls, which means high water later on. Our ranch, however, has a high and dry location, just back of the town. We have a fine view of the Columbia, its valleys and plains for forty miles and what we will see when the break-up comes may be worth telling you later."

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a Martha Washington tea, apron and fancy work sale on Tuesday, February 22, in Mr. Elgin's insurance office on Second street. A varied assortment of aprons will be shown from the dainty mulls, trimmed in filmy lace and ribbons, to the utility and domestic apron. Also new ideas in fancy work. Remember the date, February 22. f18-11

Flemingsburg has given up the idea of having waterworks, as things like these cost too much—$67,460.31 being the estimated cost of a good system.

A GOOD IDEA

Editor Duley of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, Has the Correct Dope For Once.

Editor Hiram Duley of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, is all right on a lot of things, even if he gets fussy about liquor, as this good one will testify:

"By the present law all automobile licenses are issued from Frankfort and the money goes into the State Road Fund after paying a lot of fellows for the collection. After a time some of it may be doled out to the counties whose roads have been worn out by the aforesaid autos. Why not let each county collect the license on each auto owned and operated in that county and the money put into the hands of the County Road Engineer to apply to the repairs and betterment on the roads of that county. This is nothing more than common fairness and straight business. The county which has the autos should collect the tax to make good the wear and tear on its roads. Abolish the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. It has caused enough trouble to warrant its abolition."
